

FESTOOL MW 1000 MOBILE WORKSHOP

Bring your workplace to wherever you are. Thanks to its robust design and compact dimensions, you can take the mobile workshop anywhere with no effort at all. The large tyres are fully rubber-lined and shock-resistant, even making light work of trips up and down stairs.

- > Easy to transport up and down steps due to the large wheels, which are fully rubber-lined and shock-resistant
- > Handle with adjustable angle, sliding surfaces and recessed grip on the pan for easy loading into a vehicle by one person
- > Compact dimensions and effortless assembly and disassembly
- > Worktops and storage areas with optional customised extension: Simple option of adding multiple multifunction tables and SYSTAINER pull-out drawers
